CONSTELLIS COMPLETES STRATEGIC ACQUISITION OF OMNIPLEX

Transaction Increases Scale and Strengthens Service Offering for Domestic Security Contracts; Brings Significant Upstream Capabilities to Constellis' Expanded Offering

RESTON, Va. (August 11, 2017)—Constellis, a leading provider of operational support and risk management services, announced today that it has completed its acquisition of OMNIPLEX World Services Corporation (“OMNIPLEX”), a leading provider of protective and investigative services, from Altamont Capital Partners. The acquisition significantly enhances Constellis’ service offering to include sophisticated technology and consultative solutions while expanding Constellis’ U.S. intelligence community customer base and domestic presence.

“We are pleased to complete the acquisition of OMNIPLEX, which continues our evolution as an essential service provider and further strengthens our relationship with our intelligence community customers,” said Jason DeYonker, chief executive officer of Constellis. “OMNIPLEX has significantly enhanced our scale and service offering for domestic security as well as expanded our service capabilities into the background investigation market. Since announcing the acquisition, we have worked with the OMNIPLEX team and its key customers to ensure a seamless transition and continued delivery of industry-leading services.”

The transaction brings to Constellis a company that predominantly supports well-funded, difficult-to-penetrate federal agencies across the intelligence, law enforcement and homeland security communities that have an ongoing need for a broad range of investigative and security requirements. Going forward, Constellis will leverage both companies’ outstanding past performance with the industry’s most revered compliance programs to pursue future government and commercial opportunities. With the acquisition of OMNIPLEX, Constellis has approximately 20,000 employees operating in the U.S. and internationally.
